

To The Max!

Workbook 5

Alfred Leo
Jill Marie Fairall

PREISS MURPHY
School Publishers

CONTENTS

1

Open the Door to Your Future

4

2

Boys Or Girls?

10

3

Personalise Your Astrology

16

4

History Speaks !

22

5

Which Colour are You?

28

6

Fast and Safe

34

7

Tablets : From Stone to PC

44

8

Global Upshots

50

Listening	Speaking	Reading	Vocabulary	Grammar
Conversation about talents and abilities Personal problems	Talking about ambition and potential	How to Open the Door to Your Future?	Future, ambition & skills	Present Verbs - Deduction (present & past)
Conversation about boy friends Family relationships	Talking about boys and girls	Boys vs Girls	Boys, girls & marriage	Reported Questions - Passive Constructions
Conversation with an astrologer Personalized horoscope	Talking about horoscope and star charts	Your Secret Self!	Astrology, horoscopes, telling & reading	Present Tenses (active & passive) - Wishes & Regrets
Conversation with a historian in a museum Historical background	Talking about history and archeology	The Tombs of The Pharaohs	Excavation, history & civilization	Past Tenses (a) (active & passive) - Past Tenses (a) (active & passive)
Conversation about culture in shopping Types of shoppers	Talking about culture	The Personality Colour	Culture, position & character	The Passive Voice - The Conditional Sentences
Conversation about changing cars car problems	Talking about cars	How fast the car?	Cars, safety & technology	The Passive Voice (indefinite) - The Imperative Voice
Conversation about ebooks The future of books	Talking about records of writing	History of Writing	Tablets, writing & tablets	Conjunctions - Emphasis
Conversation about global problems Solutions to global problems	Talking about global issues	Globalization	Globalization, disasters & solutions	Future Passive Forms - Ability, Possibility & Permission

Speaking Activities	Language Essentials	Useful Expressions	Writing	Reading for Enrichment
- Does 'that' exist?	- Propositions (a)	- Recommendations	- Epitaphs	- Explore Yourself
- Expressions (a)	- Preposition tags	- Advice	- Argumentation	- Myths, Stereotypes & Gender Differences
- Do you believe in reincarnation?	- Obligations and necessity	- Opinions	- Persuasive	- Profiles of the Types
- Should we cherish and promote ancient civilizations?	- Past habits	- Expression	- Descriptive (a)	- End of The World: yes? Not just yet!
- Do colours really matter?	- verbs followed by "to + infinitive" in the "present" (a)	- Describing people	- Descriptive (a)	- Blue, Purple and Green
- Can bicycles be a public transport?	- verbs followed by "to + infinitive" in the "present" (a)	- Comparing & offer	- other writing	- Not Ready For Taking Care!
- Are ordinary paper books out of date?	- Propositions (a)	- Instructions	- Poems	- Keeping Records
- Can we survive without genetically modified (GM) food?	- verb + object + to	- Warning	- Articles	- Water Scarcity

PRELIS

 MURPHY
 School Publishers

1 Open the Door to Your Future

Vocabulary

A Match each definition in (A) with its word in (B). One word is not needed:

A	B
1 A traditional story accepted as history	a destiny
2 An event that will inevitably happen in the future	b lateral
3 the possibility of future success	c embrace
4 include as part of something broader	d myth
5 situated at or extending to the side	e assets
	f prospect

B Write the synonym for each word:

- continual = _____
- ally = _____
- hug = _____
- empower = _____
- fulfill = _____

C Use the words in question B to fill in the blanks:

- Governments are trying hard to _____ peoples' needs.
- At times of emergency, the individual seeks his _____ for support.
- The _____ rainfall flooded the town in two days.
- I usually meet my Mum with a _____ on coming back home.
- We are all _____ by advertisements everywhere.

D Fill in the missing parts in the columns with the right derivative of each word to complete the word families. Some boxes will not have a word.

Noun	Verb	Adjective compensate commitment constant fulfill evolving

E Read the clues to fill in the crossword:

Across

- give to a person or activity
- companions
- search for something desirable
- undergo evolution
- situated at or extending to the side
- a traditional historical story

Down

- feel satisfied on reaching a goal
- hug
- give something as payment for loss
- give authority or power to
- non-stop
- your circumstances in life

Reading

Read the following interview with Tim Harold, who has started his own business, then answer the questions below:

- Interviewer: Tell me, Tim, when did you start your own business and why did you do it?
- Tim: Well, I started the business in 1997. I suppose it was because I didn't want to work for somebody else. I wanted to decide what work I would do each day.
- Interviewer: Did you have another job before you started the business?
- Tim: Oh, yes, several. I worked in a factory; I was a postman for a few months; I drove a bus; I even made tea on a building site.
- Interviewer: And what kind of business do you have now?
- Tim: I have a small company which designs and makes garden furniture – mainly chairs and tables, but also some garden ornaments: statues and decorative pots.
- Interviewer: And do you make these things yourself?
- Tim: At the beginning I did. Now the business has expanded and I have three employees working with me. I do all the designing and they do the manufacturing.
- Interviewer: Do you enjoy your work?
- Tim: Oh, yes, starting my own business was the best thing I ever did. I love being my own boss.
- Interviewer: And is the business a success?
- Tim: Yes, it is. It was very small to start with, but we are now exporting some of our furniture overseas.
- Interviewer: What advice would you give to anyone who is thinking about starting their own business?
- Tim: Decide what you want to do and then do it. It's hard work but the rewards – the financial rewards and the job satisfaction – are amazing.

A Give short answers to the following questions:

- When did Tim start his own business?

- What kind of business is it?

- Find two pieces of evidence which show that Tim's business is successful.

- How many jobs did Tim have before he started his own business?

- Would you like to start your own business? Why / why not? If yes, what business will it be?

B Choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d:

- What does "being my own boss" mean?
 - Working for someone else.
 - Employing other people.
 - Working for myself.
 - Taking over my boss's job.
- What does Tim say about setting up your own business?
 - You have to work very hard for very little money.
 - The work is enjoyable and you can make money.
 - Although the work is enjoyable, you don't make much money.
 - You have to work very hard to enjoy what you are doing.
- I started my own business because I wanted _____ when to work and what to do.
 - to decide
 - deciding
 - decided
 - decide
- We _____ sell our goods to domestic customers, but some items are exported.
 - sometimes
 - only
 - mainly
 - rarely
- _____ running your own business is hard work, it is also enjoyable.
 - Despite
 - Because
 - Although
 - However
- Tim gave me _____ advice on starting a business.
 - much
 - many
 - lots
 - some
- I am thinking about _____ some of my goods overseas.
 - exporting
 - to export
 - export
 - exported

C Correct the mistakes in these sentences:

- Tim makes all the things his company sells.

- Tim's company only makes tables and chairs.

- Tim regrets starts his own business.

- Tim thinks running his own business is easy.

Speaking

A With your partner, work out a dialogue about your ambitions for the future:

Partner: How do you see yourself in five years' time?

You: I think

Partner: _____

You: _____

B Run a S.W.O.T. analysis investigating your personality. Write down three Strengths, three Weaknesses, three Opportunities and three Threats. In a group work, discuss your points with your friends:

Strengths

1 I can

2 _____

3 _____

Weaknesses

1 I am not able to

2 _____

3 _____

Opportunities

1 I have

2 _____

3 _____

Threats

1 I am unaware of

2 _____

3 _____

Grammar

A Choose the correct answer to complete the sentences below.

- How can I apply for a membership?
First, You should fill _____ this form.
a up b in c at d with
- There were only five survivors after the crashed bus had blown _____ a up b off c out d with
- I don't find my wallet anywhere. I _____ forgotten it at home.
a must b must have c can't have d can't
- Someone might _____ my book by mistake. It is not around here.
a taken b took c have taken d take
- By the way, Emmy may _____ absent today. She hasn't shown up yet.
a be b have been c been d being
- Don't raise your voice, please. I know we are alone but someone _____ hear us.
a may b might c must d can't
- Oh, God! Sabina has _____ down on seeing the bloody scene of the accident.
a brought b broken c blown d blew
- Why should we call _____ the picnic? The weather is already getting fine.
a off b on c out d of
- You can _____ out what you are interested in. Here is the 'New Arrivals' section.
a put b call c lay d pick
- I think we have to lay _____ the newly employed applicant. He can't get the drift of his job.
a on b of c off d up
- No way to work as part of a team. I hardly put _____ colleagues.
a up to b up with c together d with
- You _____ be working here. You are not in uniform.
a must b may c might d can't
- Mary _____ gone out. She was terribly ill at home when I visited her this morning.
a can't b must have c can't have d have
- The Robinsons' children are really well- _____ up. They impress me in the way they behave.
a put b brought c broken d called

B Read the situations given then write your responses using must, can't, may or might in the present time or past time:

- 1 Someone asks you about your friend Sally. You are almost certain she is on holiday.

- 2 You are sure you didn't take all the books needed when you left this morning.

- 3 You are unsure whether you forgot something in a shop yesterday or not .

- 4 You know it's possible that your friend will call you tonight.

- 5 Perhaps you will be absent for school tomorrow.

- 6 You are not sure if someone called you while you were sleeping.

- 7 You think no one used your mobile phone today, I had it all day.

- 8 You are sure the milkman is at the door ringing the bell.

- 9 It's probable that your friends will invite you to dinner tomorrow.

- 10 You are sure your friend sent you an e-mail but you haven't seen it yet.

- 11 You are almost sure you lost your credit card.

- 12 You don't know if mother has really asked for your help or not.

- 13 You are very uncertain that someone borrowed your pen.

- 14 You are uncertain if you did wrong homework or not.

C Rewrite the sentences using the words in brackets making the necessary changes to give the same meaning:

- 1 I know that my friends are visiting me this evening. (call)

- 2 The firemen have finally extinguished the fire that lasted for two hours on the corner shop. (put)

- 3 Has your car ever stopped working while going to work? (down)

- 4 I am so thirsty. Could you pour water into the glass to the top, please? (fill)

- 5 My sister is sociable and friendly. She manages to get along with her colleagues at work perfectly. (put)

- 6 If you are under-qualified, you may be dismissed in a short time. (off)

- 7 You shouldn't spend all the money you earn. You have to spare some for an emergency. (aside)

- 8 If you are ready, I can collect you in half an hour. (pick)

- 9 I think the flight might be cancelled due to weather conditions. (call)

- 10 The final match will be postponed because of some political reasons. (put)

- 11 You'd better assemble these toys before you leave the room, Shelly. (together)

Language Essentials

A Rewrite the sentences using the words in brackets to give the same meaning:

- 1 We have managed to persuade Dad to change his car. (succeeded)

- 2 They never encourage me to be careless. (discourage)

- 3 My mother decided to have the carpets cleaned today. (insisted)

- 4 Do you agree to what is always said about mental hygiene? (approve)

- 5 Parents object to breaking family regulations. (disagree)

- 6 I am looking forward to visiting Spain. (dream)

- 7 My friend arrived late. She said she was very sorry. (apologised)

B Find the mistake in each sentence and write them correctly:

- 1 Some infants suffer of dehydration as a result of malnutrition.

- 2 Do you complain from anything here?

- 3 I'd like to congratulate you for getting the first prize.

- 4 My sister generally prefers cycling from swimming.

- 5 It was after midnight when we arrived to Paris. Most of the restaurants were closed.

- 6 In some African poor countries, children die for starvation.

- 7 Some ancient civilisations believed at life after death which culturally known as 'resurrection'.

- 8 When I was a child, my father bought me a lot of easy readers so as to interest me on reading.

- 9 What time do you usually leave to school?

- 10 The film we saw yesterday is based in a true story.

Useful Expressions

A Read the situations and give useful encouraging expressions of recommendation. You can also give reasons:

- 1 Your mother makes the most delicious dishes.

- 2 Your friend can help you with any problem whenever you apply to him/her.

- 3 Why don't you leave this book?

- 4 Why do you always like eating in that restaurant in particular?

- 5 Your mother doesn't know what to cook for dinner. She asks for your suggestion.

- 6 A friend asks you about the best pastime activity.

- 7 Someone asks you why you look up to your father as a role-model.

- 8 Your parent asks you why you are proud of a certain friend.

- 9 A friend asks you why you admire a famous actor/actress.

- 10 Mother asks you why you liked yesterday's movie.

- 11 A friend asks you why you prefer a specific means of public transport.

- 12 A classmate asks you why you spend your leisure time in the school library.

Writing

Write an expository essay on 'How to start your own business !'.

Include these points in your writing:

- When can one start a business?
- What requirements and skills are needed?
- What examples are there of projects?
- How can ambition back up business?

Lined writing area on the left side of the page.

Lined writing area on the right side of the page.

PRELIMS
School Publishers
MURPHY

